

Ian Lockett is a multi-talented IT and Tech business growth expert with over 20 years' experience as a mentor, coach and business strategist. Over the years of working at various blue-chip companies holding a variety of senior positions, no one fits the profile better than Ian to help you grow your tech based business, develop your network and unlock your hidden potential as an individual.

Ian's PASSION and DEDICATION towards helping others remain his strongest asset, with his main objective of working with IT Consultancy organisations and individuals to help improved business performance, strengthening and developing their mindset all while designing their very own work-life balance.

Ian founded INNOVATE TO SUCCESS in 2016 with the main aim of helping businesses and professionals achieve more each day, while increasing the business performance, increasing productivity and reducing unhealthy stress.

After navigating corporate obstacles while developing his own career and business, he understands the pressures organisations and individuals are under in today's increasingly demanding business environment. He is therefore an ideal EXPERT to help, advise and support both parties.

As well as working 1:1 with individuals, Ian advises and supports tech based businesses in a strategic capacity when they are either experiencing growing pains or ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE. His structured and logical yet realistic approach ensures success while maintaining full stakeholder engagement.

Both his DRIVE FOR BUSINESS and DRIVE Personal Business Development systems features his own real life, tried and tested strategies for fast tracking your route to success. He uses this program, along with his genuine passion, dedication and energy to help others:

- Prepare Businesses for Growth
- Gain clarity around your Business and Personal Performance
- Improve your Work Life Balance
- Support targeted collaboration

With over 20 YEARS' EXPERIENCE of working within different capacities in business, Ian's most recent role was the HEAD OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT for UK Power Networks Services.

Ian has also held SENIOR PROJECT MANAGEMENT positions for Virgin Media and COMMERCIAL BUSINESS PERFORMANCE roles as a consultant for Anglian Water, Turner and Townsend, Morrison Utility Services and McNicholas Construction.

According to Business Intelligence Consultant Nelson Sousa,
Working with Ian has been an amazing experience. By being challenging yet supportive, he gave me confidence in my own ideas as we developed a three stage plan to systematically grow my business over the coming years. I would highly recommend connecting with Ian to see how he can help others in this space

MD of an IT Consultancy Andy Johnson adds:
"Since working with Ian and the Drive For Business System, it has just made my brain fizz with ideas. His key skill is helping me channel and organise these thoughts through his systems to help me put a plan to ensure my business succeeds, and it works!"

App and Software Developer Andrew Marshall says:
"Being part of the IT Experts Mastermind has been an amazing experience. Not only do we learn the fundamental building blocks to help our businesses grow but we also learn from other tech experts in the room."

Ian lives in Bedfordshire, has been happily married for over 20 years and has an amazing family, which is his "WHY".
